

The History of Black Dance in America

HBDA Photo Exhibition and Fundraiser

This powerful 60-piece collection of original works by Gayle Goodrich captures the dress rehearsal and three performances of the History of Black Dance in America Juneteenth project from June of 2015. (For you art collectors, each piece will be printed in a small Limited Edition of 5 only!) This is a free event with complimentary wine, food and live music. Come purchase some original art, support our HBDA dancers and this moving and powerful project.
